Cincinnati Offers Praise.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16 .- The celebration of the discovery of America began tonight with exercises in Music hall under Catholic auspices. The hall was elaborately decorated with the national colors in all possible variation of design through all of which were conspicuous stars and stripes. The celebration took the form of a grand concert by the combined Catholic church choirs and chorus from the parish schools. An address was delivered by the Rev. John Mackey. On Tuesday the public schools will be dismissed for the work and the next day will occur the parade of ail the childment in regard to his application for a protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of the improved by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of the improved by the conference of those protectorate as invalid because it was being taken by the conference of silver and for the interval taken by the conference of the improved by the conference the Catholic schools, and on Friday will be the great popular civic demonstration on the part of citizens of larger growth. Impressive Services at St. Louis. St. Lours, Oct. 16 .- Every Catholic church in St. Louis today was the scene of solemn impressive services in commemoration of the work of the great discoverer, Columbus. The programs were wonderfully elaborate and early all the regular choirs were assisted by the leading vocal or instrumental soloists of the city, and in some was heard the leading vocal talent of the country. The sermions also were in a Columbian trend of thought, from subjects relating directly to "Columbus as a Catholic," "As a Discoverer," "His Motive for Discovery," "As a Christian and a Man." The afternoon was, in many of the parishes, devoted to Columbian exercises by the school children in their respective school The exercises consisted of patriotic recitations, songs, etc. Many of the churches have signified their intention of forming a part of the GARZA'S BROTHER ARRESTED. A Texas Ranger Finds Him Plotting for Cuba's Freedom at Key West.

Galvesion, Tex., Oct. 15 .- Encarnacion Garza, younger brother of the Mexican revolutionist Catarino Garsa, arrived here by steamer today from Key West, in custody of Capt. Joseph shely, the noted ranger, by whom he was arrested on Wednesday last. He was taken to San Antonio last night where he will be tried for violation of neutrality laws. Captain Shely has been on the track of Garza since his brother, Sheriff Snely of Storr county, was shot by a band of revolutionists some weeks ago. Shely reached Key West and found a grand celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of Cuban independence in full blast, and Encarnacion Garza in gay uniform and nodding plumes, marching at the head of the procession of over 1,500 Cuban sympathizers. Remaining quiet until the festivities were over Captain Shely effected Garza's arrest in the morning, and Wednesday left by ateamer with him for this place. Garza had been in Key West since March 10. He had not concealed his identity but was, on the contrary, actively at work organizing a band to nvade Cuba. He lived in the house of Pedro Lopez, one of the largest and ber of sleepers to amply accommodate wealthiest cigar manufacturers. Garthe travelers. Arrangements for the za's chief concern upon being arrested was that he might be turned over to the Mexican authorities, which would mean speedy death, but upon being assured that he would be accorded a

The increase in common manufacture ranked second, being 39.51 per cent; in the wool manufacture third, being 26.39 per cent. The increase in the entire textile industry was 28.51 per cent. The relative rank in importance of these industries has been changed. The wool manufacture in all its branches (including all descriptions of knit goods) now stands first with gross value at $337,673,524. Cotton is second, Stuyvesant Fish, Vice President J. C. Welling, Second Vice President and General Manager J. T. Harahan and Directors E. H. Harriman and Charles ducts was $70,715,611 in wood, $75,891, General Manager J. T. Haranan and Charles Directors E. H. Harriman and Charles ducts was $70,715,611 in wool, $75,891, A. Peabody, Jr., of the Illinois Central railroad, arrived here yesterday from the total increase being without parallel in any country. There were 248 alell in any country. There were 248 establishments engaged in dying and finishing textiles, separate and apart from establishments which dye and finish the products.

Increase of Millions. The capital invested in these was $40,270,579, employing 20,257 hands, and paying $9,717,011 in wages. The value added to the product of the textile factories by these establishments amounted to $28,900,560, a decrease of $5.306,860 as $60.000.000 and $60.000.0000 and $60.0000 and $60.000.000 and $60.000.0000 and $60.000.0000 and $60. $5,396,860, as compared with 1880. The decrease was on account of a great reduction in the cost of dying and finishing through improved methods, and limited to be equal to 25 per cent. A tending the increase of the combined industries during the past decade is as follows:

Number of establishments, 1890, 3,-865; 1880, 3,827; percentage of increase, .99; capital invested, 1890, $79,552,861, 1883, $386,397,559; per cent of increase, $1.51; number of hands employed (not including officers and clerks in cotton industry,) 1890, 488,921; 1880, 365,438; per cent of increase, 53.79; amount of wages paid (not including wages paid officers and clerks in cotton industry,) 1890, $4,162,365,598; 1880, $93,576,302; per cent of increase, 64.71. Miscellan-eous expenses, 1890, $408,328,226; 1880, $289,045,599; per cent of increase, 41.27.

A Wonderful Showing. Value of products, 1890, $693,048,702; 1880, $500,376,068; per cent of increase 38.51. The great increase in the capital invested is largely due to the fact that the 1880 returns did not take cognizance of all items which are properly embraced in the current census inquiry under the head of "live assets."
